CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SENATE

February 23

1390

mittee on Appropriations on a supplemental appropriations bill. The hearings began this morning. I do not know how rapidly they can be expedited or when the Committee on Appropriations may report the bill to the Senate. However, when the bill has been reported, it will be the purpose of the leadership to move its consideration as soon as the bill is ready to be taken up on the floor. I think the Senate should have notice of that intention.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

Mr. KNOWLAND. I move that the Senate now proceed to the consideration of executive business.

The motion was agreed to; and the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business.

The VICE PRESIDENT. If there be no reports of committees, the clerk will state the nominations on the Executive Calendar.

UNITED NATIONS

The legislative clerk read the nomination of Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts, to be a representative of the United States of America to the second part of the seventh session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

The legislative clerk read the nomination of Ernest A. Gross, of New York, to be a representative of the United States of America to the second part of the seventh session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

The legislative clerk read the nomination of James J. Wadsworth, of New York, to be a representative of the United States of America to the second part of the seventh session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

The legislative clerk read the nomination of William Sanders, of Virginia, to be alternate representative of the United States of America to the second part of the seventh session of the General Assembly of the United Nations.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

The legislative clerk read the name of Allen Welsh Dulles, of New York, to be Director of Central Intelligence.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

The legislative clerk read the nomination of Lloyd A. Mashburn, of California, to be Under Secretary of Labor.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

GOVERNOR OF TERRITORY OF HAWAII

The legislative clerk read the nomination of Samuel Wilder King, of Hawaii, to be Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the nomination is confirmed.

Mr. KNOWLAND. Mr. President, I ask that the President be notified of all nominations confirmed this day.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, the President will be immediately so notified.

Mr. KNOWLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that there may be printed in the RECORD a statement by the Senator from Wisconsin [Mr. WILEY] relative to the nominations of representatives to the United Nations, together with brief biographical sketches of the nominees.

There being no objection, the statement and biographical sketches were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

STATEMENT BY SENATOR WILEY ON UNITED NATIONS NOMINATIONS

The nominations of United States delegates to the United Nations General Assembly were sent to the Senate by the President on Friday and were immediately considered, that afternoon by the Foreign Relations Committee which unanimously reported them to the Senate.

There are 4 nominations involved, 3 delegates and 1 alternate. The delegates are Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts, our permanent representative to the U. N.; James J. Wadsworth, of New York, our deputy permanent representative; and Ernest Gross, of New York. The alternate is William Sanders, of Virginia.

The Senate has only recently confirmed the nominations of Mr. Lodge and Mr. Wadsworth in their capacity as permanent representatives. Mr. Gross has previously served as a delegate to the Assembly, and Mr. Sanders has also had long experience in United Nations affairs in the State Department.

The Assembly resumes its session tomorrow and therefore it is of the utmost importance that these nominations be confirmed by the Senate today so that the United States will be officially and formally represented from the beginning.
